

Litigation

National and cross-border litigation, arbitration, mediation and enforcement proceedings – Dispute resolution has always been one of our core areas of expertise. Based on their long-standing experience our lawyers successfully support and represent our clients in even the most complex disputes.

Mehr auf www.redeker.de

REDEKER | SELLNER | DAHS

Litigation & dispute resolution

We provide our clients with reliable support in challenging national and international proceedings. Whether classic civil and commercial disputes, complex corporate corporate issues or proceedings before European courts – we combine legal expertise with in-depth industry knowledge. Our goal: to consistently assert your interests, whether in litigation in court or in the enforcement of a judgement.

Legal proceedings

- General civil and commercial law
- Antitrust damages proceedings
- Construction and public procurement law
- Corporate law conflicts
- Public liability and administrative law
- Constitutional law proceedings
- Representation before the ECJ
- Representation before the European Court of Human Rights

Arbitration & Mediation

In addition to litigation, we offer you effective alternatives: from international arbitration proceedings (ICC, DIS, ad hoc) to investment protection proceedings through to mediation. In this way we find the right strategy for every conflict – whether a contentious dispute or an amicable solution.

More about
Litigation