

Dr Alexandra Kürschner

senior associate

Career

Studied law at the Humboldt University in Berlin. First state examination in 2016, second state examination in 2021. 2016 to 2017 research assistant in environmental and planning law as well as energy law at law firms in Berlin. 2020 Doctorate under Prof. Dr Thorsten Siegel with a thesis on environmental and planning law. 2019 to 2021 Traineeship at the Court of Appeal in Berlin with stations at Redeker Sellner Dahs and at the European Commission's Directorate-General for the Environment in Brussels.

Joined the firm in 2022.

Practice

Environmental law, planning law, public construction law, public commercial law, Constitutional Law, energy law.

Consulting and representation on infrastructure projects such as LNG terminals (Stade), power lines (e. g. SüdLink, Ultranet, NordWestLink, SüdWestLink), offshore connection lines (e. g. OST-6-1), renewable energy plants (wind power, photovoltaics), industrial and chemical parks (e. g. Stade, Leverkusen, Leverkusen, Leverkusen). E.g. Stade, Leverkusen, Krefeld-Uerdingen), hydrogen projects, fuel cell systems; advice on development plans (e. g. residential construction projects in Berlin and Hamburg), conservation statutes and design statutes as well as representation in judicial review proceedings; advice and representation in planning permission proceedings.

Publications

Kürschner, Alexandra. Legalplanung – Eine Studie am Beispiel des Standortauswahlgesetzes für ein atomares Endlager. Tübingen, Mohr Siebeck 2020.

Dr Alexandra Kürschner
Berlin
T +49 30 885665-286
F +49 30 885665-99
kueschner@redeker.de Assistance:
Sabine Stricker

Languages

German, English, French