

Fabius Wittmer

associate

Career

2012–2018 Studied law in Berlin and Moscow, sponsored by the Studienstiftung des deutschen Volkes. 2018 first, 2021 second state examination in law. 2018–2019 research assistant at the Chair of Public Law and Financial Law at the Humboldt University of Berlin (Prof. Dr. Christian Waldhoff). 2019–2021

Legal traineeship at the Kammergericht with stations at the Federal Ministry for the Environment and at Redeker Sellner Dahs. Since 2021 promotion on religious constitutional law in Russia with Prof. Dr. Christian Waldhoff. 2022–2024 research assistant at the Academy for European Human Rights Protection at the University of Cologne (Prof. Dr. Dr. h. c. Angelika Nußberger M.A.).

2024 Joined the law firm.

Practice

Constitutional, European and international law, public commercial law.

Recognized with the Legal 500 Award as “Public Law Team of the Year 2026”.

Member of the DAV and the association GrundGesetzVerstehen e. V.

Representing and advising the Federal Government, associations and Associations as well as private and public companies (e. g. technical inspection organizations) Organizations), in particular on security, foreign trade and sanctions law Sanctions law, on fundamental European freedoms and on fundamental issues of European constitutional law Questions of European constitutional law.

Publications

Fabius Wittmer
Berlin
T +49 30 885665-170
F +49 30 885665-99
wittmer@redeker.de

Publications on constitutional, European and international law.

Languages

German, English, Russian