

Dr Jan Mädler

Senior Associate

Career

Born in Reichenbach/Vogtland in 1981. Studied in Meißen to graduate in administration. Studied law in Jena and Leipzig, 2004-2010. Legal and scientific assistant with various law firms in Leipzig and Berlin, trainee lawyer with the Dresden Higher Regional Court with stations in Leipzig and Berlin. 2010 first State examination, 2016 second State examination. Doctoral thesis with Prof Dr Kluszczewski, Leipzig, in 2017. Prosecutor in Dresden in 2017.

Joined the firm in 2018.

Dr Jan Mädler
Bonn
T +49 228 72625-212
F +49 228 72625-99
Leipzig
T +49 341 21378-12
F +49 341 21378-30
maedler@redeker.de Assistance:
Manuela Mangold
Kathrin Kretschmann dos Santos

Practice

Construction law-, public procurement law, public commercial law.

Member of the DAV working group on public procurement law.

Regular lecturer and speaker on public procurement law topics both in the area of training and further education (inter alia in the specialist lawyers' course on public procurement law and in various courses of study) as well as at specialist conferences and in practitioners' seminars.

Legal advice for a special purpose association in connection with the award of a project management contract and construction services for sports facilities. Comprehensive advice to a local authority in Saxony on the award of project management services in the field of IT; assistance to a foundation in the procurement of various services (IT, communication, PR, event management); representation in contract award review proceedings. Legal advice on subsidy law for a company in the food industry. Statute-review procedures performed by local government authorities.

Publications

Publications on public procurement law, including co-author of the commentary Kapellmann/Messerschmidt, VOB A and B, 7th edition 2020

Languages

German, English