

Marlen Kemper, LL.M. (Glasgow)

associate

Career

Studied law in Mainz, Valencia and Glasgow. first state examination in 2021, second state examination in 2023. 2017 to 2018 Master of Laws (LL.M.) with a focus on competition law at the University of Glasgow. 2019 to 2020 research assistant at commercial law firms in Frankfurt and Düsseldorf. Legal traineeship at the Regional Court of Kiel with stations at the Ministry for Energy Transition, Agriculture, Environment, Nature and Digitalization of Schleswig-Holstein and at a commercial law firm in Hamburg.

Joined the law firm in 2024.

Marlen Kemper, LL.M. (Glasgow)
Berlin
T +49 30 885665-202
F +49 30 885665-99
kemper@redeker.de
Office:
Yvonne Krüger
Sabine Stricker

Practice

Environmental law , planning law, public construction law, public commercial Law

Consulting and representation of companies, Municipalities and private individuals in all areas of public building law and environmental environmental law, in particular nature conservation law, pollution Pollution control law, soil protection law, redevelopment law and monument protection law Conservation law; advising project sponsors on energy industry projects such as Projects such as transmission grids for electricity (e. g. SuedLink); advising and Representation of an operator of transmission masts in connection with the construction of Mobile phone base stations; advice on development plans (e. g. housing projects in Residential construction projects in Hamburg and Berlin, commercial projects in Rostock and Weimar) including urban development contracts to accompany the planning process; advice and representation in planning permission procedures (commercial and industrial And industrial facilities as well as residential construction projects); advice in legal Proceedings; advising and representing municipalities in particular in traffic Transport planning; advising and representing project developers on projects projects requiring planning approval, in particular road construction projects under the the FStrG as well as representation of the project developer in court proceedings regarding Noise protection requirements for a commercial airport.

Languages

German, English, Spanish, French