

Dr Matthias Ganske

Partner

Career

Born in Zossen in 1977. Studied law at Humboldt-University in Berlin. 2002 first State examination, 2005 second State examination. 2004 doctoral degree with Prof Dr Hans-Peter Schwintowski.

Joined the firm in 2005.

Practice

Public procurement law, fiscal legislation (fees, contributions, water board contributions, waste water charges), pricing law, public commercial law, environmental law.

Recommended by Legal 500 in public law/procurement. Listed as top attorney in public procurement law (2018, 2019, 2020, 2021) by Wirtschaftswoche.

Vice chairman of the preexamination board for specialized procurement lawyers at the Cologne Bar Council, member of the administrative law working group North Rhine-Westphalia of the German Bar Association, of the procurement law working group of the German Bar Association, and of the German procurement network (DVNW).

Lecturer at Bonn University. Frequently lectures within the scope of specialist lawyer courses for construction and architects' law as well as administrative law. Frequent lecturer and speaker on procurement law and administrative law.

Legal advice and acting as counsel for public entity clients and bidding companies in connection with awards procedures in the fields of construction & planning, IT, education & research, health & social affairs and public services (waste disposal, water, sewage), including any implications from the perspective of budgetary, municipal, subsidy and state aid law; legal advice in connection with urban development contracts, privatisation and re-municipalisation projects

Dr Matthias Ganske
specialist attorney for administrative law specialist attorney for procurement law
Bonn
T +49 228 72625-166
F +49 228 72625-99
ganske@redeker.de Assistance:
Kathrin Kretschmann dos Santos
Maren Simon
Ulrike Oferath
Julia Wylenzek

and all forms of cooperation between public entities and restructuring (in-house transactions, inter-municipal cooperation contracts, foundations of special purpose associations, etc.); acting as counsel in public procurement review procedures, civil damages proceedings for breaches of public procurement law as well as administrative and administrative court proceedings involving the reclaiming of subsidies as a result of breaches of public procurement law. Legal advice on levies and pricing issues and acting as counsel before court in (precedence-setting) proceedings (all the way to the Federal Administrative Court) both for the public sector and its subsidiaries as well as for companies in the fields of industry, trade and agriculture.

Public and procurement law advice to federal and state ministries/senate administrations in connection with various projects of administrative digitisation, especially in the area of e-government and implementation of the Online Access Act (OZG).

Publications

Co-author in Reidt/Stickler/Glahs, commentary on procurement law, Kapellmann/Messerschmidt, commentary on VOB parts A and B, Landmann/Rohmer, commentary on environmental law. Monograph: "Corporate Governance im öffentlichen Unternehmen". Author of numerous expert contributions on procurement law and administrative law.

Languages

German, English