

Tobias Brings-Wiesen

associate

Career

Studied law with a focus on international and European law at the University of Cologne, sponsored by the German National Academic Foundation. 2014 first state examination. 2015 to 2020 Research assistant at the Institute for Media Law and Communications Law at the University of Cologne (Chair of Public Law and Media Law, Professor Dr. Karl-E. Hain). 2020 to 2023 Worked in the legal department of Westdeutscher Rundfunk Cologne. 2021 to 2023 Legal clerkship at the Regional Court of Cologne, including stations at the Press Chamber there and the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees in Nuremberg. 2023 second state examination.

2023 Joined the law firm as a research assistant and 2024 as a lawyer.

Practice

Media law, (media) constitutional law, press law and freedom of expression, freedom of information law, European and international law

Advises and represents federal and state authorities as well as broadcasters in the areas of media regulation and media law, (media) constitutional law and media-related European and international law; advises and represents individuals and companies as well as members of government, federal and state authorities and broadcasters in press and commentary law matters relating to media inquiries and reporting; advises and represents authorities in connection with access to information and information access claims.

Publications

Publications on media law, migration law, administrative law, constitutional law as well as European and international law. On the editorial board of the JuWiss blog.

Tobias Brings-Wiesen
Bonn
T +49 228 72625-217
F +49 228 72625-99
brings-wiesen@redeker.de
Office:
Manja Körfer

Languages

German, English